Basic skills training student interview

At the beginning of the interview the interviewee will be informed (told the following things) and asked for consent.

Informed consent:

The interview is carried out by Silta-Valmennusyhdistys.

The interview is about the basic skills training organized by _____, in which you participated here in the prison.

The interview is part of the evaluation of the basic skills' training.

The purpose of the interview is to hear about the students' experiences and get information about the successes of the training and the needs for development.

This interview will be recorded. The interviewer will transcribe the recording, that is, write down the recording into text word for word.

After the transcription is done, the researcher will destroy the recording.

The transcribed text will be anonymized, that is, all the things which could be used to identify who the interviewee is will be removed from the text (e.g. names and other personal data, locality or the location of the prison etc.).

The interview is confidential and participating in the interview doesn't affect the interviewees' position, studies, or the prison sentence.

The anonymized text made from the interview might be later used in academic research, such as research articles or academic theses.

Participation in the interview is voluntary and is based on the consent of the interviewee.

I will now ask your consent for three things: participation in the interview, reconrding and text use for academic research.

The recording starts.

Consent: yes / no to all three (will be recorded).

Do you consent to participate voluntarily in the interview?

Do you consent to the recording?

Do you consent to the research use of the text?
